

Shourei Nouzen

Name/Aliases: Shourei Nouzen

Rei

Dullahan

Headless Knight

Birthday: -

Age: 21

Gender: Male

Height: 180 cm

Eyes: Jet-Black

Hair: Bloodred

Relatives: Seiei Nouzen (Grandfather)

Gelda Maika (Grandmother)

Reisha Nouzen (Father)

Yuuna Nouzen (Mother)

Shinei Nouzen (Younger Brother)

Kiriya Nouzen (Distant Cousin)

Relationships: -

Occupation: Processor (Former), Legion Shepherd

Military Rank: -

Background: Rei was the eldest son of Reisha and Yuuna Nouzen. He was sent to the Eighty-Sixth Sector along with his family soon after the war broke out. His father soon enlisted to fight for their rights, followed by his mother once Reisha died in combat. The absence of their parents left Rei and Shin in the care of a sympathetic Adularia priest. Later, he would also receive news of his mother's death. Due to the stress he accrued in the internment camps from his parent's deaths and imminent conscription, he snapped and irrationally took out his frustrations on Shin by strangling him. He was stopped by their caretaker, deeply regretting his actions. He left for the front lines before he could apologize to Shin. One night when he was on patrol, he came across a young Vladilena Milizé, who was taken by her father to see the injustices brought upon the Eighty-Six. Their helicopter had been shot by a Stachelschwein and was forced to land, leaving them vulnerable to an attack from a nearby Ameise. He took the only survivor, Lena, to his base and sent her back to inside the Gran Mur. Four years after his conscription, Rei was killed in action and assimilated as a Legion Shepherd.